If it is found that an error was made, it will be corrected at the next pay period that the FOP dues deduction would normally be made by deducting the proper amount.

The FOP shall submit in writing the names of the Employee's to act as representatives for the purpose of this Agreement.

SECTION 5.3. The investigation and writing of grievances shall normally be performed on non-work time (defined as off-duty hours, authorized breaks and meal periods) unless otherwise authorized by the shift supervisor at a time when such activities do not interfere with the efficient and proper operation of the Department. An Employee or employee representative involved in grievance presentation's, pre-disciplinary hearings or other authorized representational activities shall not suffer any loss of pay for time spent in activities, if such activities are scheduled on the Employee's work time, nor shall such Employee receive any compensation or benefits from the Employer if such activities take place during the Employee's off-duty time.

ARTICLE 6 NON-DISCRIMINATION

SECTION 6.1. The provisions of this Agreement shall be applied equally to all Employee's in the bargaining units without discrimination as to age, sex, race, color, religion, handicap or national origin.

- F. To consider and discuss health and safety matters relating to Employees.

SECTION 7.3. It is further agreed that if special labor/management meetings have been requested, and mutually agreed upon, they shall be convened as soon as possible.

ARTICLE 8
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

SECTION 8.1. The term "grievance" shall mean any allegation by a bargaining unit employee that there has been a breach, misinterpretation, or improper application of this Agreement. It is not intended that the grievance procedure be used to effect changes in the Articles of this Agreement nor in those matters not covered by this Agreement.

SECTION 8.2. If specific administrative relief of a judicial or quasi-judicial nature is provided for by the statutes of the State of Ohio or the United States for review or redress of specific matters (such as workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, equal employment opportunity, civil rights, etc.) such matters may not be subject of a grievance or be processed as such.

SECTION 8.3. All grievances must be presented at the proper step and time in progression in order to be considered at subsequent steps. Any grievance which originates from a level above the first step of the grievance procedure may be submitted directly to the step from which it originates. Grievances of Suspension without pay, Reduction in pay and position or Discharge from employment shall be presented directly to Step 2 in the grievance process. Any Employee may withdraw a grievance at any point by submitting in writing a statement to that affect, or by permitting the time requirements at any step to lapse without further appeal. Any grievance which is not processed by the Employee within the time limits provided shall be considered resolved based upon Employer's last answer. Grievances of Written reprimand are not subject to Arbitration (Step 5).

Any grievance not answered by the Employer within the stipulated time limits may be advanced by the Employee to the next step in the grievance procedure. All time limits on grievances set forth herein may be extended only upon mutual consent of the parties.

A grievance may be brought by any aggrieved Employee covered by this Agreement. Where a group of bargaining unit employees desires to file a grievance involving an incident affecting several Employees in the same manner, one (1) Employee shall be selected by the group to process the grievance. Each aggrieved Employee who desires to be included in such a grievance shall be required to sign the grievance.

SECTION 8.4. The aggrieved Employee shall use a written grievance form which shall provide the following information:

1. Aggrieved Employee's name and signature;
2. Date, Time and Location of grievance;
3. Description of incident giving rise to the grievance;
4. Articles and Sections of the Agreement violated;
5. Date grievance was first discussed;
6. Name of Supervisor with whom grievance was first discussed;
7. Date grievance was filed in writing; and
8. Desired remedy to resolve grievance(s).

The FOP shall have the responsibility for the duplication and distribution of, and its own accounting for, the grievance forms.

SECTION 8.5. It is the mutual desire of the Employer and the FOP to provide for prompt adjustment of grievances, with a minimum amount of interruption of the work schedules. Every possible effort shall be made by the Employer and the FOP to effect the resolution of grievances at the earliest step possible. In furtherance of this objective, the following shall be followed:

STEP 1: In order for a grievance to receive consideration under this procedure, the Employee shall orally present the grievance to the Employee's immediate supervisor within seven (7) calendar days of the occurrence that gave rise to the grievance. The supervisor shall investigate and provide an appropriate answer within seven (7) calendar days following the date on which the supervisor was presented the grievance.

STEP 2: If the grievance is not resolved in Step 1 and the Employee wishes to proceed to Step 2, the Employee, shall reduce the grievance to writing and shall, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the occurrence that gave rise to the grievance, present the written grievance to the Police Chief or his designee. The Police Chief or his designee shall investigate and respond in writing to the Employee within seven (7) calendar days following the presentation of the grievance to Step 2.

STEP 3: If the grievance is not resolved in Step 2 and the Employee wishes to proceed to Step 3, the Employee shall present the written grievance to the Safety- Service Director or his designee within seven (7) calendar days from receipt of the Step 2 answer. The Safety-Service Director or his designee shall investigate the matter and shall respond in writing to the Employee seven (7) calendar days following the presentation of the grievance to Step 3.

STEP 4: If the grievance is not resolved in Step 3 and the Employee wishes to proceed to Step 4, the Employee shall present the written grievance to the Mayor or his designee within seven (7) calendar days from receipt of the Step 3 answer. The Mayor or his designee shall investigate the matter, shall meet with the Employee and his desired FOP representative, if any, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the receipt of the grievance, if the Mayor or his designee determines that a meeting is necessary, and shall respond in writing to the grievant within twenty-one (21) calendar days following the presentation of the grievance to Step 4.

STEP 5 (ARBITRATION): If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved in Step 4, it may be submitted to Arbitration upon request of the FOP in accordance with this section of this Article. The FOP, based upon the facts presented, has the right to decide whether to arbitrate a grievance. Within twenty one (21) calendar days from the date of the final answer on such grievance under Step 4 in the grievance procedure, the FOP shall notify the Employer of its intent to seek arbitration over an unadjusted grievance. After receipt of a request to arbitrate, a representative of each of the parties (the FOP and the Employer) shall attempt to agree on an arbitrator. Should representatives fail to agree on an arbitrator, the arbitrator shall be selected in the following manner:

The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service shall be jointly requested to submit a panel list of nine (9) arbitrators. The parties shall then choose an arbitrator by alternately striking the names from the list until such time as one name remains as the arbitrator chosen by the parties. Prior to beginning the striking procedure, either party may once reject a list and submit a request for another list from the FMCS. The arbitrator shall limit his decision strictly to the interpretation, application, or enforcement of specific articles in this Agreement. He may not modify or amend the Agreement.

The question of the eligibility of a grievance may be raised by either party before the arbitration hearing of a grievance, on the grounds that the matter is non-arbitrable or beyond the arbitrator's jurisdiction. The first question to be placed before the arbitrator will be whether or not the alleged grievance is arbitrable. If the arbitrator determines the grievance is within the purview of eligibility, the alleged grievance will be heard on its merits before the same arbitrator.

The decisions of the arbitrator shall be final and binding. The arbitrator shall be without authority to recommend any right or relief on an alleged grievance occurring at any time other than the contract period in which such right originated or make any award based on rights arising under any previous agreement, grievances or practices. The arbitrator shall not establish any new or different wage rates not negotiated as part of this Agreement. In cases of discharge, suspension, or reduction, the arbitrator shall have the authority to award modification of said discipline.

The fees and other costs for services of the arbitrator, the cost of any proofs produced at the direction of the arbitrator, and the cost of the hearing room, if any, shall be equally borne by the parties.

The fees and costs, if any, of any non-employee witnesses shall be borne by the party calling them. The fees and costs of the court reporter's attendance are split equally by the parties if both parties desire a court reporter, or request a copy of any transcripts. Any bargaining unit member whose attendance is required for such hearing shall not lose pay or benefits to the extent such hearing hours are during normally scheduled working hours on the day of the hearing, nor shall such Employee receive any compensation or benefits from the Employer if such hearing hours are during the Employee's off duty time.

SECTION 8.6. When an Employee covered by this Agreement chooses to represent himself in the presentation of a grievance, no adjustment of the grievance will be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. Prior to the adjustment of any such grievance, the appropriate FOP grievance representative will be notified of his right to be present at the adjustment. In the event the Employee seeks arbitration without the approval of the FOP, he shall be solely responsible for any and all expenses ordered by the arbitrator.

ARTICLE 9 DISCIPLINE

SECTION 9.1. The tenure of every bargaining unit Employee of the Cheviot Police Department shall be during good behavior and efficient service. No Employee shall be reduced in pay and position, suspended, or discharged except for grounds stated in this Agreement. The Employer may take disciplinary action against any Employee in the bargaining unit only for just cause. The Employer may take this type of action while the Employee is on duty, working under the colors of the Employer, or off-duty representing himself as an Employee of the Police Department. The Employee may not be disciplined for actions on his own personal time that do not reflect directly on the Police Department, or do not violate any State or Federal statutory provisions, or departmental standards of conduct, rules or regulations. The forms of disciplinary action are:

1. Written reprimand
2. Suspension without pay or Temporary assignment, not to exceed sixty (60) calendar days
3. Reduction in pay and position, or
4. Discharge from employment.

SECTION 9.2. Incompetency, inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, neglect of duty, absence without leave, violation of Departmental standards of conduct, rules or regulations, any other failure of good behavior, or any other acts of misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance in office shall be cause for disciplinary action.

SECTION 9.3. Except in extreme instances wherein the Employee is found guilty of gross misconduct, discipline will be applied in a progressive and uniform manner. Progressive discipline shall take into account the nature of the violation, the Employee's record of discipline and the Employee's record of performance and conduct.

SECTION 9.4. Any time the Employer or any of its representatives has reason to discipline an Employee, it shall be done in a manner that will not embarrass the Employee before other Employees or the public.

SECTION 9.5. During the course of any Departmental investigation into allegations of violations of Departmental standards of conduct or rules and regulations, including pre-disciplinary conferences, the Employee suspected of a violation, and/or any Employee being questioned regarding another Employee suspected of a violation, shall be informed, prior to questioning, that failure to respond or respond truthfully to questioning may result in a charge of insubordination and/or neglect of duty for which the Employee may be subject to discipline.

SECTION 9.6. Whenever the Employer or his designee determines that an Employee may be disciplined for cause (including only suspensions, reductions or discharge), a pre-disciplinary conference will be scheduled to give the Employee an opportunity to offer an explanation of the alleged misconduct.

SECTION 9.7. Pre-disciplinary conferences will be conducted by a neutral Department supervisor selected from those supervisors not directly in the chain of command of the Employee, or by a neutral selected from outside of the Department. The Employer, or his designee, shall select the neutral.

SECTION 9.8. Not less than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the scheduled starting time of the conference, the Employer will provide to the Employee a written outline of the charges, the reason(s) and basis for disciplinary action. The Employee must choose to: (1) appear at the conference to present an oral or written statement in his defense; or (2) appear at the conference and have a chosen representative present an oral or written statement in defense of the Employee; or (3) elect in writing to waive the opportunity to have a pre-disciplinary conference. Failure to elect and pursue one of the above three (3) options will constitute the Employee's waiver of his right to a pre-disciplinary conference.

SECTION 9.9. At the pre-disciplinary conference, the neutral will ask the Employee or his representative to respond to the allegations of misconduct which were outlined to the Employee.

SECTION 9.10. At the conference the Employer and Employee may present any testimony, witnesses, or documents which explain whether or not the alleged misconduct occurred. The Employee may be represented by any person he chooses. The Employer and Employee shall provide a list of witnesses to the neutral as far in advance as possible, but not later than two (2) hours prior to the pre-disciplinary conference. It is the Employer and Employee's responsibility to notify witnesses that either desires their attendance at the pre-disciplinary conference.

SECTION 9.11. The Employee will be permitted to confront and cross-examine witnesses. A written report will be prepared by the neutral concluding as to whether or not the alleged misconduct occurred. The Employer will decide what discipline, if any, is appropriate. The neutral shall have ten (10) days to prepare his report. A copy of the neutral's report will be provided to the Employee within five (5) days following its preparation.

SECTION 9.12. Disciplinary action may be appealed through the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 10 PERSONNEL FILES

SECTION 10.1. Each Employee may inspect his official personnel file maintained by the Employer at any reasonable time, and shall, upon request, receive a copy of any document contained therein at the Employee's cost. An Employee shall be entitled to have a representative of his choice accompany him during such review.

SECTION 10.2. No anonymous material of any type or statements of hearsay shall be included in the Employee's personnel file. If an unfavorable statement or notation is in the file the Employee may place a statement of explanation or rebuttal in the file. Any and all material three (3) years old shall be purged entirely from the file in accordance with guidelines established by the Ohio Revised Code concerning public records.

SECTION 10.3. Records of written reprimands shall cease to have force and effect one (1) year from the date of issuance and shall, upon request of the Employee, be removed from the official personnel file, provided no intervening discipline has occurred. Any record of discipline of any kind shall cease to have force and effect three (3) years from the date of issuance and shall, upon request of the Employee, be removed from the official personnel file. Any oral/verbal warning(s) issued prior to the signing of this agreement shall have no force or effect.

SECTION 10.4. The following items shall be considered public information available upon request to the Employer, from an Employee's official personnel file: annual salary, degree(s) held, areas of special certification, and awards or commendations. All other documents in the official personnel file shall be considered confidential and shall not be conveyed in any manner to any person or persons unless by court order, subpoena, or written permission of the Employee.

ARTICLE 11 PROBATIONARY PERIODS

SECTION 11.1. Every newly hired Employee will be required to successfully complete a probationary period. The probationary period shall begin on the first day for which the Employee receives compensation from the Employer and shall continue for a period of one (1) calendar year. A newly hired probationary Employee may be terminated any time during his probationary period and shall have no right to appeal the termination.

SECTION 11.2. Any Employee promoted into a higher level position shall be required to successfully complete a probationary period of one (1) calendar year. An Employee serving a promotional probationary period whose performance is judged unsatisfactory shall be returned to his former position, or a similar position.

SECTION 12.4. Employee's laid off shall retain their seniority for a period of twenty-four (24) months from the date of layoff.

SECTION 13.1. When the Employer determines that a long-term layoff or job abolishment is necessary, he shall notify the affected Employee's fifteen (15) days in advance of the effective date of the layoff or job abolishment. Employee's will be notified of the Employer's decision to implement any short-term layoff, lasting seventy-two (72) hours or less, as soon as possible. In the event of a service connected injury or occupational illness incurred in the active discharge of duty, which illness or injury is not a result of "horseplay", self infliction, or negligence by the Employee, the Employer may grant the Employee, beginning on the eighth (8th) calendar day of absence, or on the first (1st) day the Employee is admitted to a hospital as an inpatient, whichever is earlier, injury leave with full pay for a period not to exceed sixty (60) work days. Extensions of injury leave may be granted at the discretion of the Employer upon request for an extension from the Employee.

SECTION 23.2. Any Employee claiming a service connected illness or injury under this Article, shall file an injury claim with the Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation. The term "full pay" shall not include any time considered a benefit or an accrual while on injury leave such as sick time, compensatory time, or vacation time, which shall continue to accrue normally. In the event the claim is denied by the BWC, the Employee shall revert to sick leave status, and shall be charged with sick leave and/or vacation for all time paid by the Employer for the injury leave claim.

SECTION 23.3. It is understood and agreed that the Employer's obligation under this Article is only for the difference between the Employee's regular rate of pay and the amount of income benefits to the Employee from Workers' Compensation, and is not in lieu of Workers' Compensation.

SECTION 23.4. An Employee partially disabled who is eligible for injury leave under this Article may be required by the Police Chief or his designee to perform limited duty work, subject to the limitations set and approved by the Employee's physician.

ARTICLE 24 COURT LEAVE

SECTION 24.1. The Employer shall grant required leave with full pay where an Employee is summoned for any jury duty or subpoenaed as a witness by any court or other adjudicatory body as listed in this Article. All compensation received from the summoning agency for such duty must be paid to the Employer unless such duty is performed totally outside the normal working hours. An Employee released from jury duty prior to the end of his scheduled work day shall report to work for the remaining hours of his work shift. Employees will honor any subpoena issued to them, including those from Workers' Compensation, Unemployment Compensation, and State Employment Relations Board hearings. It is not proper to pay Employees for appearing in court for cases being heard in connection with the Employees' personal matters, including, but not limited to, criminal or traffic charges against the Employee, domestic relations matters to which the Employee is a party, appearing as directed with a juvenile, etc.. These absences would be leave without pay, compensatory time off, or vacation leave at the discretion of the Employer. An Employee shall request prior approval for court leave, in order for such leave to be granted.

ARTICLE 25 MILITARY LEAVE

SECTION 25.1. Military Leave and pay shall be in accordance to Federal and Ohio Law.

ARTICLE 26 UNPAID LEAVES OF ABSENCE

SECTION 26.1. Employees may be granted the following types of unpaid leaves of absence:

- A. Personal leave. The Employer may grant a leave of absence to any Employee for a maximum duration of six (6) months for any personal reasons of the Employee, including medical disability. Such a leave may not be renewed or extended beyond six (6) additional months.

- B. Disability leave. A physically or mentally incapacitated Employee who has completed his probationary period may request a disability leave. A disability leave for a period not to exceed six (6) months may be granted when the disability continues beyond accumulated sick leave and/or vacation leave rights or beyond the period of a personal leave for medical reasons, provided the Employee furnishes satisfactory medical proof of such disability, along with his written request and is:
 - 1. Hospitalized or institutionalized;

2. On a period of convalescence following hospitalization or institutionalization authorized by a physician at the hospital or institution; or
3. Declared incapacitated for the performance of the duties of his position by a licensed physician designated by the Employer.

It is the Employee's responsibility to request a disability leave since such leave is not granted automatically when the Employee's sick leave has expired.

When an Employee is ready to return to work, he shall furnish a statement by his attending physician certifying the Employee is able to return to work.

C. Maternity Leave. A female Employee who has exhausted all paid leaves of (sick leave and vacation) may request a leave of absence without pay for maternity purposes by submitting such request in writing to the Employer accompanied by a signed physician's statement verifying the Employee's pregnancy, and:

1. The leave of absence will begin on the date the physician states that the Employee can no longer perform the substantial portion of her duties, and
2. The leave of absence will end sixty (60) days after delivery, or sooner if the physician releases the Employee as medically able to return to work.
3. No later than thirty (30) days after delivery, the Employee will notify the Employer, in writing, of her desire to return to work and her anticipated date of return. Lack of such notification shall be considered a resignation. Employees who desire to return to work shall be placed in their original position, or a similar position at the same pay, as needs of the Department dictate.
4. Should it become necessary to extend the Employee's leave of absence for maternity purposes beyond six (6) months, the Employee shall be placed on a disability leave in accordance with this Article.
5. The Employee may request that accrued sick leave be used during the period prior to or after delivery that is covered by the physician's statement.

An Employee may request leave for purposes of child care following childbirth, but such leave shall be combined with the leave of absence for maternity purposes and limited to a maximum of six (6) months total. Leave for male employees may be deducted from sick leave for care of the Employee's wife and family during the postnatal period. Such sick leave shall be for a maximum of ten (10) consecutive days. Written requests for this purpose must be submitted to and approved by the Employer.

GRANTING OF UNPAID LEAVES OF ABSENCE

SECTION 26.2. The authorization of an unpaid leave of absence is a matter of administrative discretion. The Employer will decide in each individual case if a leave of absence is to be granted.

SECTION 26.2.A. The granting of any unpaid leave of absence is subject to approval of the Employer. Except for emergencies, Employees will advise the Employer sixty days prior to commencement of the desired leave so that the various departmental functions may proceed properly.

SECTION 26.2.B. Upon completion of an unpaid leave of absence, the Employee is to be returned to the position formerly occupied, or to a similar position if the Employee's former position no longer exists. Any replacement in the position while the Employee is on leave will be terminated upon reinstatement of the Employee from leave. The terminated Employee may be considered for other vacancies.

SECTION 26.2.C. An Employee may return to work before the scheduled expiration of leave as requested by the Employee and agreed to by the Employer. If the Employee fails to return to work at the expiration of an approved unpaid leave of absence, such Employee, absent extenuating circumstances, shall be removed from his position and shall not receive seniority credit for the period of leave.

ARTICLE 27 EXPENSES

SECTION 27.1. When an Employee is required or authorized by the Employer to travel on official business, the Employer shall reimburse the Employee for all reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred by the Employee in the performance of his duty, including, but not limited to, expenses incurred for meals, lodging, and parking, subject to established limits and rates, upon presentation to the Employer of receipts showing the Employee's payment for same.

SECTION 27.2. When an Employee is required or authorized by the Employer to travel on official business and to drive his own automobile, the Employer shall reimburse the Employee for all miles actually driven for official business by the Employee in his automobile at the Internal Revenue Service, Standard Mileage Rate for Business Miles.

ARTICLE 28 SEVERANCE PAY

SECTION 28.2. In the event of death of an Employee, any severance pay to which the Employee would have been entitled shall be paid directly to the Employee's designated beneficiary, or his estate, if no beneficiary is named, in accordance with the terms of this agreement.

SECTION 28.3. An Employee who retires from service with the Employer shall be presented his badge. An Employee who retires from service with the Employer shall be able to purchase his service weapon from the City for one dollar ($1.00).

ARTICLE 29 NO STRIKE / NO LOCKOUT

SECTION 29.1. The Employer and the FOP recognize that a work stoppage of any kind would create a clear and present danger to the health, safety and welfare of the public, and that this Agreement provides machinery for the orderly resolution of grievances. Therefore, the parties agree that:

- A. During the term of this Agreement, the FOP shall not, for any reason authorize, cause, engage in, sanction, or assist in any sick call work stoppage, strike, sympathy strike, slowdown, or any other concerted activity which would interrupt the operations or services of the Employer during the life of this Agreement.
- B. During the life of this Agreement, the Employer shall not cause, permit, or engage in any lockout of the bargaining unit employees unless those Employees have violated Section 29.1.A. of this Article and are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge by the Employer.

SECTION 29.2. In addition to any other remedies available to the Employer, Employee(s), either individually or collectively, who violate Section 29.1.A of this Article, are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including discharge by the Employer.

SECTION 29.3. In the event of any violation of Section 29.1.A of this Article, the FOP shall promptly do whatever it can to prevent or stop such unauthorized acts.

SECTION 29.4. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to limit or abridge the Employer's right to seek other available remedies provided by law to deal with any unauthorized or unlawful strikes.

ARTICLE 30 SEVERABILITY

SECTION 30.1. This Agreement supersedes and replaces all applicable State and Local laws which it has the authority to supersede and replace. Where this Agreement is silent, the provisions of applicable law shall prevail. If a court of competent jurisdiction finds any provisions of this Agreement to be contrary to any applicable statute, such provision shall be of no further force and effect, but the remainder of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 30.2. The parties agree that should any provisions of this Agreement be found to be invalid, that they will schedule a meeting within thirty (30) days at a mutually agreeable time to discuss alternative language on the same subject matter.

ARTICLE 31 WAIVER IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

SECTION 31.1. In cases of emergency declared by the President of the United States, the Governor of the State Ohio, the Hamilton County Sheriff or the Federal or State Legislature, such as acts of God, or civil disorder, the following conditions of this Agreement may be temporarily suspended by the Employer:

- A. Time limits for processing of grievances; and
- B. All work rules and/or agreements and practices relating to the assignment of Employees.

SECTION 31.2. Upon termination of the emergency, should valid grievances exist, they shall be processed in accordance with the provisions outlined in the grievance procedure of this Agreement and shall proceed from the point to the grievance procedure to which the grievances had properly progressed prior to the emergency.

ARTICLE 32 DURATION

SECTION 32.1. This Agreement shall be effective as of April 1, 2022, and shall remain in full force and effect through midnight December 31, 2024.

SECTION 32.2. If either party desires to modify or amend this Agreement, it shall give written notice or electronic filing of such intent no earlier than one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days prior to the expiration date, nor later than ninety (90) calendar days prior to the expiration date of this Agreement. Such notice shall be via electronic filing such as by email. The parties shall commence negotiations within two (2) calendar weeks upon receiving notice on intent.

SECTION 32.3. The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right to make demands and proposals on any subject matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the entire understandings and agreement arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement and all prior agreements, practices, and policies, either oral or written, are hereby canceled. Therefore, both parties, for the life of this Agreement, voluntarily and unequivocally waive the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated, to bargain collectively or individually with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such matters may not have been within the knowledge of either or both parties at the time they negotiated or signed this Agreement.
