-There was discussion concerning whether or not residents should be able to rent a parking lot and receive a 40% discount, as is offered for other rentable facilities (Harvest Home Lodge, barn, shelters and facilities at Cheviot Fieldhouse). A voice vote showed that the majority of council believes residents should receive a discount for parking lots, with D. Voss being the sole NO vote as he feels that parking lots should not be rented to residents.

-D. Voss recognized the passing of former police officer Tom Baldock. Officer Baldock had served the city for nearly 30 years.

Seeing no further business before this council A. Richer motioned for adjournment. D. Voss seconded and the meeting adjourned at 8:04PM.
